

Be the Change

Focusing on healthy relationships, this group worked to address the issues of domestic violence and sexual assault in their Alaska Native communities.

RESEARCH QUESTION:

Why are domestic violence and sexual assault present in our villages?

POPULATION SURVEYED

*12-70
year olds*

COMMUNITY EVENTS

CIRCLE & HUSLIA

"Love the One You're With": a community date night of 40 adult participants where family members discussed what makes a happy home and what they appreciate about each other.

NENANA

"Ice Cream Social": a video project where youth in the community created videos focused on the impact of domestic violence and sexual assault on youth.

COMMUNITIES OF FOCUS

CIRCLE, AK
POPULATION: 118

NENANA, AK
POPULATION: 406

HUSLIA, AK
POPULATION: 420

FAIRBANKS, AK
POPULATION: 32,193

"Talking about and taking action to prevent domestic violence and sexual assault is a difficult challenge for communities after living with it "hidden" for generations. People are willing to take charge now. Voices are getting louder. It's an exciting time with positive growth on the horizon."

- Cesa Agnes, Huslia.

*100+
community members impacted*

Capacity Building
CENTER FOR TRIBES

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT:
www.arcticwinds.org